

What is a heterotroph?

- An organism that creates its own food
- An organism that eat other organism
- An organism the conducts chemosynthesis
- An organism that remains plankton for its entire life

According to the central dogma, what molecule should go in the blank?

DNA → _____ → Proteins

- mRNA
- mtDNA
- rRNA
- tRNA

What is an invertebrate chordate?

- A chordate that has lost its gill slits
- A chordate with an underdeveloped dorsal nerve system
- A chordate that has lost its notochord
- A chordate that evolved to become an invertebrate