

Thermoplastics are large molecules with:

- Little branching and no chemical linking
- neither branching or chemical linking
- both branching and chemical linking
- just have massive branching

According to NFPA 72, the audible sound level must last:

- more than 60s
- less than 60s
- exactly 60s
- exactly 60min

Dry chemical extinguishing agents are not considered to be dangerous although it may cause once it is expelled from the system:

- non corrosive problems
- reaction with flammables
- corrosion problems
- respiratory problems